

Kaskade, Heart Attack

Come take aim
You want more
And I want the same
Give me a heart attack baby
Give me a heart attack

Dont stop the train
We give more
And well see the gain
Give me a heart attack baby
Give me a heart attack

They say loves a game
Our loves just begun another stage
Theres no good reason to feel this way
If we try to work on a little give and take
I wouldnt tell you its a waste of your time
The memories that help me make up my mind
Help me realize

I feel the pressure coming from every side
Im doing things just to pass up the time
Just to get me by
Just to get me by
