

Kaskade, In This Life

Your love is so true
I never thought that I would find you
So sweet, so fine, sunshine
You're so much more to me than
I ever dreamed that could be possible
In this life
And when you touch me
It's more than just a feeling
It's love, it's love, so lovely

This dream that we share
I hope you know I want you always there
To have, to hold, pure gold

So much more to me than
I ever dreamed that could be possible
In this life
And when you touch me
It's more than just a feeling
It's love, it's love, so lovely

Look I need to explain myself
Let you know right now exactly how I'm feeling
