

Kaskade, Never Ending

Oh I can never replace my love for you
Oh I will never forget you see me through

Over thoughts of giving in
Never wanted this to end
It wont last as long as memories stay
Cause it will never fade away

Oh I can never replace my love for you
Oh I will never forget you see me through

Its been weighing on my mind
Knowing this was quite to find
I wont let this feeling pass away
Reminded of this everyday
Youre everywhere
Youre here
Youre all around me
I can feel you touch me
Raise my voice to the sky above
Cries of love
