Kaskade, Sometimes

Sometimes you can hide away
Through the storms and ugly weather
Sometimes you will be the one
Who needs to hold it together
Sometimes you wont find the words
Sometimes you wont understand
Sometimes it will be enough
To simply hold a hand

Sometimes you get away This time is true

Sometimes you can run away
As long as you are running to me
Sometimes you will hide the pain
But your eyes, they tell the story
Sometimes you will be afraid
But youve got me here beside you
I will always be a friend
I will always be with you
