

Kaskade, This Rythm

I know this rhythm runs my soul
Builds me up and moves me through the night
I hope to never meet the dawn
Not assuming without, I know that you?ll be so

Always seems like every day
I use more than I can give
So I use the time I have
To let the spirit within me live

I know this rhythm runs my soul
Builds me up and moves me through the night
I hope to never meet the dawn
Not assuming without, I know that you?ll be so

There?s so much to take on in
Always running but it seems there?s no win
Here?s a rhythm, to remind
To feel the love we have inside

I know this rhythm runs my soul
Builds me up and moves me through the night
I hope to never meet the dawn
Not assuming without, I know that you?ll be so
