

Kaskade, Yeah Right

Don't do if you can't admit
It's working for me, is it working for you
Don't bother to have regrets
You place your bet, you get what you get
Don't expect me to call your home
Don't pick up the phone, because I'm not alone
So wipe the tear from your lying face
Was it worth it, was it worth the heartache.

Girl you're wantin' so much more
You'll get none from me
You're not what I'm looking for
Now I finally see.

Don't get caught up in every turn
We live and we learn, and sometimes we get burned
Don't forget why we go through this
We won't ever know bliss if we never miss
