

Kat Graham, Secrets (feat. Babyface)

Kiss your lips under the sky
That should be you and I,
Two people with nothing to hide
Baby, wouldn't that be nice?
Take me to church, or take me home
I wanna be close, but with the lights turned on
Cause all of the feelings, and all of our lies, are killing me
Cause I'm into you
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets (Won't let me go)
All of my secrets, yeah
All of my secrets (Keep holdin' on)
All of my secrets
Take me to a crowded room
And put your hands under my dress,
Let everyone see the truth
So nobody has to guess

Take me to church, or take me home
Take me somewhere where the world can know
Cause all of the feelings, and all of our lies, are killing me
Cause I'm into you
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets (Won't let me go)
All of my secrets, yeah
All of my secrets (Keep holdin' on)
All of my secrets
Let's do it in public
Don't you wanna just, don't you wanna just?
Let's do it in public
Don't you wanna just, don't you wanna wanna?
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets turn me on, cause nobody knows
My guilty conscience has gone rogue, and it's left me alone with
All of my secrets (Won't let me go)
All of my secrets, yeah
All of my secrets (Keep holdin' on)
All of my secrets
