

Kat Von D, VAMPIRE LOVE

Lately
Something bout the night
It makes me hazy
Come on in, take the ride
Now don't be lazy
And I just may comply
Yeah maybe, maybe baby

You're the lover I'm holding on
When the world goes down
And all is gone
You're the lover that can treat me wrong
Treat me wrong yeah

Just take me away
Into your secret paradise
Come just steal my fate
There's only you and me tonight
I got so much rage
That needs too come out from inside

Don't care what's wrong, what's right
Give me some of that
Vampire Love
Give me some of that
Vampire Love
Give me some of that
Vampire Love
Don't care what's wrong, what's right

Don't hate me
I guess I'm just a fool need someone to break me
Come on in, after dark
And recreate me
Take me from the light and baby tame me, tame me

You got my heart pulsating
Spinning on the floor

I'm here anticipating, dying at the door

Each night is devastating
When you're with me no more

Bring my lover into the light
Bring my lover into the light
