

Kataklysm, Centuries (Beneath The Dark Waters)

destiny has proven time and time again that our ways will deceive us no matter how hard we try we fail to realize... we are so volatile we are beings of no historical sense we desecrate everything we achieve never seen, never tried never felt, never believed all the things we value all the things we love & hate all the things we are and will not be... and will not feel and will not see... swallowed in hate beneath the dark waters where is your paradise?

all i see is pain beyond pain... no one will ever acknowledge their true faith it's all lies written in blood from this day forward we are blind death comes calling, we start hiding this is where you'll see the true strength of man
