

Kataklysm, To Regain Again

We're conquered all but still we're searching for blood
To thirst the quench a thousand years old
I want to hear the screams of nation's colliding
Soaked in sorrow the fate of tomorrow
You better run... run far away
From everything you ever wanted to be
Your destiny is mine...
To defy this is suicide... it's suicide!
To Reign Again
None shall defy
The vengeance I unfold
Surrender to this end
Death is yours to keep
Fear opposition... doomed forever... rage in anger
Feel the pressure ripping you apart
We're conquered all but still we're searching for blood
To thirst the quench a thousand years old
I want to hear the screams of nation's colliding
Soaked in sorrow the fate of tomorrow
You better run... run far away
From everything you ever wanted to be
Your destiny is mine...
To defy this is suicide... it's suicide!
To Reign Again
None shall defy
The vengeance I unfold
Surrender to this end
Death is yours to keep
