

Kate Alexa, Falling Out

I feel a little bit out of place and I've never been like this before,
I watch back with no disgrace and I wonder why I fell through this door,
I really need some time to figure out just who I am and what I'm here for,
I dont know anywhere left to go but I know one things for sure..
I'm fallin' out of the blue skies, I'm headed straight down right to the ground,
I'm goin' out of the good times, and I dont wanna feel like this anymore..
I'm fallin' out of the blue skies, I'm headed straight down right to the ground,
I'm comin' out of the good times, and I dont think I can take this anymore..
I never thought that it would ever change and that life would always be the same,
Now its takin' this crazy journey that may or may still take the blame..

(blank bit nobody can hear, please correct)

I'm waiting, I'm watching, I'm trying to turn back the time,

I'm wishing, I'm wanting to fly back up to the sky..
