

Kate Bush, Hammer Horror (Demo)

Who stands in the belltower,
Now you're gone.
And who knows all the sights
Of Notre Dame?

You knew the girls and the times,
You knew the rites and the rhymes.
Now they're trying to push me into your name.

Hammer Horror, Hammer Horror,
Won't leave it alone.
The first time in my life,
The first break of my life,
Wh(ere) I've let'em go.
Hammer Horror, Hammer Horror,
Won't leave it alone.
Oh no,
It's not the right thing to do!

Who calls me from the other side
Of the street?
And who taps me on the shoulder?
I turn around, but you're gone.

You know my mind and my heart.
So you should know I wouldn't take your part.
All I want to do is forget
You, friend.

Hammer Horror, Hammer Horror,
Won't leave it alone.
The first time in my life,
The first break of my life,
Wh(ere) I've letten go.
Hammer Horror, Hammer Horror,
Won't leave it alone.
Oh no,
It's not the right thing to do!
