

Kate Bush, Hounds Of Love (Alternative)

When I was a child running away from nothing
Heading for home (didi-do do didi-dow dow)
Now hounds of love are hunting (didi-do do didi-dow dow)
I've always been a coward (didi-do do didi-dow dow)
And I don't know what's good for me

C'mon and run, run, run, run, run, run, run honey
Run from the hounds of love
Run, run, run, run, run, run honey
Run from the hounds of love
Run run run run run keep running
Run from the hounds of love
They need love, love, love, love, love - yeah

Do you know what I really need?
I know what I really need (continuously didi-do do didi- dow dow)
But I don't know what's good for me
I don't know what's good for me

Oh, I need love
Now hounds of love are hunting (didi-do do didi-dow dow)
I've always been a coward (didi-do do didi-dow dow)
And I don't know what's good for me (didi-do do didi- dow dow)
I never know what's good for me

C'mon and run, run, run, run, run, run, run honey
Run from the hounds of love
Run, run, run, run, run, run honey
Run from the hounds of love
Run run run run run keep running
Run from the hounds of love

So run, run, run, run, run, run, run honey
Run, run honey
Run, run, run, run
Run run run run keep running
Run from the hounds of love
Run, run, run, run, run, run honey
Run from the hounds of love
Run, run, run! from the hounds of love
