

Kate Bush, Kashka from Bagdad

Kashka from Baghdad
Lives in sin, they say,
With another man,
But no one knows who.
Old friends never call there.
Some wonder if life's
Inside at all--
If there's life inside at all.
But we know the lady who rents the room.
She catches them calling a la lune.
At night
They're seen
Laughing,
Loving.
They know
The way
To be Happy.
They never go for walks.
Maybe it's because
The moon's not bright enough.
There's light in love, you see.
I watch their shadows,
Tall and slim,
In the window opposite.
I long to be with them.
'Cause when all the alley-cats come out,
You can hear music from Kashka's house.
At night
They're seen
Laughing,
Loving.
They know
The way
To be Happy.
"Watching every night.*
Don't you know they're seen?
Won't you let me laugh?
Let me in your love.
"Watching every night.
Don't you know they're seen?
Won't you let me laugh?
Let me in your love.
"Watching every night.
Don't you know they're seen?
Won't you let me laugh?
Let me in your love.
"Watching every night.
Don't you know they're seen?
Won't you let me laugh?"
