

Kate Bush, You Want Alchemy

What a lovely afternoon
On a cloudbusting kind of day.
We took our own 'Mystery Tour'
And got completely lost somewhere up in the hills.
And we came up on a bee-keeper,
And he said "Did you know they can change it all?"
You want alchemy.
They turn the roses into gold
They turn the lilac into honey
They're making love for the peaches.
And we're thinking,
"Who is this guy?"
"Is he some kind of nut or what?"
He said, "I don't meet many people."
"I'm very busy with the hives."
Zzzzzzzzzzz.. Sun's gone down..
"When's my cloud of bees coming home?"
They got alchemy.
They turn the roses into gold
They turn the lilac into honey
They're making love for the peaches.
And they'll do it,
Do it for you.
They'll do it,
Do it for you.
"And if you see them, send 'em right on home to me"
(what they gonna do...?)
They got Aaaaaaaa..
Turn the roses into gold.
And they'll do it for you
Do it for you (what they gonna do...?)
I'll tell Yaaaaaaa..
Making love for the peaches. (what they gonna do...?)
Daaaaaamaaaaaakiiiiindaaaaa honey.
(they do it for you)
They do it for you.
And why not...?
They bring me so much pleasure.
