

Kate Ceberano, Brave

I could hear the calling, a million miles away
As my heart beats fills the silence, with words that I can't say my mother used to tell me, girl time for you will come
And so I sit back and I hold tight, my time has now begun

And I won't ever walk away
I'll just be brave and stay
Hold me till the end
And in your arms I'll rise up high
Ooh hoo I wait for tomorrow, remember yesterday
Ooh when I was scared of the darkness
And saying things I shouldn't say
But now my life has changed ooh
Just look what I've become
And so I sit back and I hold tight
My life has just begun

Ooh hoo life has been fine as a child up till now
But I found I'm searching for something more
Yeah

Ooh hoo love it has no reason, don't need none to survive
It's just a little flame in my heart, Ooh hoo keep me burning bright

Don't walk away (don't walk away)
Just be brave and stay (Don't walk away)
Hold me till the end (don't walk away)
And in your arms I'll rise up high
Haa haa haa haa haa rise up high
haa haa haa haa haa rise up high
