Kate Havnevik, Grace

I'm on my knees only memories are left for me to hold

Dont know how but III get by Slowly pull myself together

Theres no escape So keep me safe This feels so unreal

Nothing comes easily Fill this empty space Nothing is like it seems Turn my grief to grace

I feel the cold Loneliness unfold Like from another world

Come what may I wont fade away But I know I might change

Nothing comes easily Fill this empty space Nothing is like it was Turn my grief to grace

Nothing comes easily Where do I begin? Nothing can bring me peace Ive lost everything I just want to feel your embrace
