

Kate Havnevik, Show Me Love

I have a secret place
Of my own
That I visit whenever I need space to Spread my wings
Where I drown my heart in daydreams
Where I go and taste your wine again

Show me
Show me love
Show me everything I need to know
Show me
Show me love
Show me everything I need to know

The gods of destiny they hold my love
And listen to the wild inside
Between the millions of skyscrapers
I discover something
Something real

Show me
Show me love
Show me everything I need to know
Show me
Show me love
Show me everything I need to know

How long will it be? How brave are you?
Until I will feel Something real
How much do I need? How brave are you?
How far will I see?

Show me
Show me love
Show me everything I need to know
Show me
Show me love
Show me everything I need to know
