

Kate Havnevik, You Again

I can't go anywhere, without feeling strange I can't see anyone, everything has changed

Cause every time I close my eyes, it's you again, you again and every time I hear your voice I, don't know what to do with myself

You, You, n da da da da da dum, you, n da da da da da
dum, you, n da da da da da
dum, you, n da da da da da

Tum time, valentine waiting for my chance easy chat up lines, but do you dare to dance?

Cause every time I close my eyes,
it's you again, you again
and every time I hear your voice I,
don't know what to do with myself

You, You, n da da da da da, dum you, don't know what to do with my self dum, you, n da da da da da, dum
you, don't know what to do with myself

Die, apart or die die am I
die, apart or die
do I for my

Cause every time I close my eyes,
it's you again, you again
and every time I hear your voice I,

I don't know what to do...with myself
