Kate Nash, Paris

You've come so far, well done darling We knew that you had it in you You can do anything that you want, world is an oyster, dont dissapoint us You can stand on your own two feet, you can lead me through the streets Pave the way, so we can dream dreams, noone else can see what you made me see Still climbing trees, tripping up over fallen leaves, but holding hands No one else could ever understand what it's like between us And thats betweens us, but I know that You'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me No you'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me You'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me No you'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me I dont know everything about you, would you like to spend time with me Said you'd lend me anything, I think I'll have your company Said you'd lend me anything, I think I'll have your company You said you'd lend me anything, I think I'll have your company You'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me No you'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me You'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me No you'll never listen to me, no you'll never listen to me