

Kate Nash, So much older

She was like a perfect Hollywood picture
Pretty smiling
He fell in love, not for a while just for life
Just for life
And he was like a true romance
A fighting buffer (???) boxer man
Hanging out with all the lads
Not to getting to hold hands
Now theyre older, so much older
He is older and she is older
And things tend to go a little slower
Now theyre older so much older
He is older and she is older
Things tend to go a bit more slow
And he relies on her
And she helps him out
He relies on her and she helps him out
And he relies on her and she helps him out
And he relies on her
He relies on her
And she, she helps him out
Remember when we went to Spain
How I wish that we could go back again 24 pounds is all youre allowed
remember when we went to Spain
oh how I wish that we could go back again how I wish that we could go back
