

Kate Ryan, Goodbye

Visions about you bring tears to my eyes
All that surrounds you were secrets and lies
You were my strength you were my dream
We were a perfect team

Our love was stronger than the winds of time
Could hold you longer till the day I die... goodbye
Goodbye

The love songs I wrote, I cannot sing them anymore
This is all your fault 'cause you walked out the door
You were my strength you were my dream
Love hurts, when it's not what it seems

Our love was stronger than the winds of time
Could hold you longer till the day I die... goodbye
Goodbye

Our love was stronger than the winds of time
Could hold you longer till the day I die... goodbye

Our love was stronger than the winds of time
Could hold you longer till the day I die... goodbye
Goodbye
