

Kate Ryan, In Your Eyes

I feel the wind rushing through my hair
I've got the sun down on my face
I reach for the future, I won't look back
I wanna be free and leave it all behind
And I long to see
Long to see the sunlight in your eyes
In your eyes.
I close my eyes and sense a mystery
The scent of of flowers in the air
I've seen all the beauty, in everything
Knowing it's real- i feel so alive
And I long to see
Long to see the sunlight in your eyes
In your eyes.
