

Kate Ryan, L.I.L.Y

If I asked you to stay would you give me forever
If I begged for your kisses would you give me more
If I opened my heart and stood naked before you would you know how to stand there and look in my eyes
Is it ment for just you
Or ment for someone else
How can I, How can I be sure
that you love me
Like I love you
How can I, How can I really believe that you're gonna love me
Like I love you
If I opened my heart and stood naked before you
would you know how to stand there and look in my eyes
Is it ment for just you
Or ment for someone else
How can I, How can I be sure
that you love me
Like I love you
How can I, How can I really believe that you're
gonna love me
Like I love you
I wont lie about it
Not a day goes by
I dont think about it Always on my mind
Do I dare to trust you Do I trust myself
Is it ment for just you
Or ment for someone else
that you love me
Like I love you
How can I, How can I really believe that you're
gonna love me
Like I love you
How can I, How can I be sure
that you love me
Like I love you
How can I, How can I really believe that you're
gonna love me
Like I love you
