

Kate Voegele, It's Only Life

Tears are forming in your eyes, a storm is warning in the skies, the end of the world it seems,
you bend down and you fall on your knees, well get back on your feet, yeah,

Don't look away, don't run away,
baby it's only life,
don't lose your faith, don't run away,
baby it's only life.

You were always playing hard, never could let down your guard, you can't win, if you never give in,
to that voice within, saying pick up your chin, baby let go of it, yeah,

Don't look away, don't run away,
baby, it's only life.
don't lose your faith, don't run away,
baby it's only life.
(repeat)

Take your hesitance, and your self defence, leave them behind, it's only life, don't be so afraid of facing every day, just take your time, it's only life, i'll be your stepping stone, don't be so alone, just hold on tight, it's only life, oh yeah... oh

Don't look away, don't run away,
baby it's only life,
don't lose your faith, don't run away,
baby, it's only life.
(repeat)

It's only life, it's only life, don't look away...
