

Kate Voegele, You Can't Break A Broken Hearts

Wont be so easy
This time to hurt me
You can try
This time baby there are no tears left here to dry
If you think you can ruin me like before
If you think you can do that anymore
Wont get to far nooo
You can't break a broken heart
So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
No damage you can do now
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what broke apart
There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart
Hurt me before now
Wont hurt no more now
Not this time
You might do better messing with someone else's mind
Cuz your not gonna break me down again
Your done with fooling me the way you did
It's gone to far ehh
And you can't break a broken heart
So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
No damage you can do now
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what broke apart
There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart
So don't waste your time
Your time has come and gone
What are you here for
You can't have me any more
So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
No damage you can do now
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what broke apart
There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart
So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what apart
You can't break a broken heart
Break a broken heart
