

Kate Walsh, Goldfish

If I could leave this town, I'd bold
Enjoying the lost and found
And start all over
I crib the open road
Like birds in summer
A chance to break the mould
Is all that I'm after
Can you offer anything, doctor
Help me start again
Moving forward
Without awkward moves
I would be brave
And I could leave this goldfish sea
And I could start to believe in me
And after the sun the rain would fall
But I wouldn't mind at all
And if I could just escape this body
I know I wouldn't fake for just anybody
I claw my heart for you
And keep it until I was okay with what I do
That's all that I'm after
Can you offer me anything, doctor
Help me to start again
Moving forward
Without awkward moves
And I would be brave
And I could leave this goldfish sea
And I could start to believe in me
And after the sun the rain would fall
But I wouldn't mind at all
No I wouldn't mind at all
