

Katerine, He's Not Like You

If love is blind then how did it find us
If love is blind then how did it blind us
Is he not what you want not rich enough
Can't you see what I feel its real
Is he not who you thought I would end up with
Don't tell me how I should feel
He's not like you, daddy
He's not like you
He's not like you, daddy
Hes not like you
Don't you remember how it felt to be in love
And how the times youve spent together were never enough
Is he not what you want not rich enough
Can't you see what I feel is real
Is he not who you thought I would end up with
Don't tell me how I should feel
If love is blind then how did it blind us
If love is blind then how did it find us
