

Katerine, Here come all the boys

Had my love and not care to mention
Broke the rules of natural selection
Tried so hard to get my attention
Missed the mature brand new obsession
Join the peepshow
Quit should go slow
Jump the intro
Its all set to blow
Here come all the boys
Fighting for my love
And when they get a taste
Theyll never get enough
And here come all the boys
Ive gotta line in love
And when they get a taste
Theyll never get enough
Theyll never get enough
Theyll never get it
Hit me like a head on collision
Tell the man take your position
Give me more than cheap class affection
Moving just so we cant addiction
Stop the replay
Drop the clich
Got my freaks say
Drag it to the floor
Here come all the boys
Fighting for my love
And when they get a taste
Theyll never get enough
And here come all the boys
Ive gotta line in love
And when they get a taste
Theyll never get enough
Here come all the boys
And here come all the boys
And if youre hard enough for me
Just get your through the doors tonight
And if youre hard enough for me
Just so let you through so hold on tight
Here come all the boys
Fighting for my love
And when they get a taste
Theyll never get enough
And here come all the boys
Ive gotta line in love
Theyll never get enough
Here come all the boys
Fighting for my love
Ive gotta line in love
Theyll never get it
