

Katerine, Shut Your Mouth

Shut your mouth
Shut your mouth
I'm bored got my chin on my hand
I've heard it all again and again
If it was Monday I could understand
But it's Saturday so I don't care
Will someone take me away, I can't take no more
'Cause he's such a bore, going on and on
Shut your mouth cause I'm falling asleep
Shut your mouth Im falling of my seat
All you do is talk, talk, talk too much
You don't know when to shut up
Shut your mouth
Every word gets lost in my head
You ain't gonna talk me into your bed
Here's a tip, zip your lip
Will someone take me away, I can't take no more
Cause hes such a bore, going on and on
Shut your mouth cause I'm falling asleep
Shut your mouth Im falling of my seat
All you do is talk, talk, talk too much
You don't know when to shut up
Youre killing met softly now face to face
Too much info on a Saturday
All you do is talk, talk, talk too much
You dont know when to shut up
When I see the crowd, jumping up and down
And Im here, listening to you
Your blabber mouth, it all comes rolling out
It just keeps going on, and on
