

Katherine, Some Boys Some Guys

Shes a goddess
Do you like her
Her eyes
Do you like her
Do you pity her
Is it silly what you feel for her
She talks about a guy and youre listening
She tells you
Youre not like them
Then she looks away
Her eyes are wondering
Why her love is gone
When hes all alone
And if another hot man comes her way
You were just a friend on a sad day
Some boys some guys
Are everybodys type
They kiss the girls and make them cry
Some boys some guys
When they pass by
Youre just a shadow in their light
You are more or less
Just her outlet
You help her
To forget
But shell never ever love you
Shes a goddess
And who are you
Maybe youre her friend
But youll never be her lover
You want that
Loving her secretly
Until some guy passes by
What will you do then
