

Kathleen Wilhoite, Don't Hold Out

You did a double take the last time that I saw you.

You said you thought that I was
someone else,
but the truth peeked out your eyes
when you tried not to smile.

It's good to see you.

Hard feelings die slow but when they
finally drift away,
you're left with a few inside jokes and
words you'll never say....

DON'T HOLD OUT ON ME NOW

It wouldn't matter if you said you're sorry
and you loved me more than anyone.

It wouldn't matter if you hated me,
it's already been done so

DON'T HOLD OUT ON ME NOW.

Yeah, the world back then spun out so fast, we flew off the deep end.

We couldn't catch our breath if we tried.

Remember everyone around us had to run and duck for cover.

It's good to see you.

Hard feelings die slow but when they
finally drift away,
we're left with a few photographs and
talk of good old days....

When someone asks you who you're talking to,

just say, an old friend of an old friend
that you thought you once knew.
