

Kathy Kelly, Angel's wings

He explodes his love
Like an angel's wing
Towards my heart
And it soothes me so sweet
It soothes and covers me
Like a warm blanket on
Open wounds and it
Soothes me so sweet
I was down and almost
Broken and you said to me
Fight my love, fight
And do not look back
This is love and I finally
Know what it is
Being close to you
Quiets me sweet
Being close to you
Quiets, my spirit, it gives
Me wings and all my crosses
Seem so small to me
We fought together and won
And carried like true champs
Off the force of love
Never looking back
He explodes his love
Like an angel's wing
Towards my heart
And it soothes me so sweet
Being close to you quiets
My spirit, it gives me wings
And all my crosses
Seem so small to me
And all my crosses
Seem so small to me
And all my crosses
Seem so small to me
