

Katy Carr, Berliner Ring

She's a Berlin girl and I knew her before
I knew she had the roots to power
She's a Berlin girl and the lights went down and I knew her well, knew her well.
She was singing:
"Where am I going to night?"
She was singing:
"Where am I going to night?"
The Berliner ring, Berliner ring,
Berliner ring, Berliner ring

She drank and she sang
She had fire in her eyes
You couldn't put her light out for anything
She's a Berlin girl and you're never gonna fight
With the Berlin girl cause you know she's right

She said: "La, la, la
Get ya booties on I'm gonna drag your dragon out of the closet
I've got motion I've got devotion I've got a little bit of love here kickin inside,
Oh the suffering inside!" - she was singing

I saw her laughing in the distance
I saw her smiling in the light
I saw her smoking a cigar
I saw her laughing in the light

Singing:
"Where I going tonight?"
She was singing:
"Where I going tonight?"
She was singing:
"Where I going tonight?"
She was singing:
"Where I going tonight?"
