Katy Perry, All The Love

I had accepted love wasn't for me
I'd never go deep, oh, no
I'd given up watchin' sunsets
I disconnected, I didn't believe, no
I couldn't see, oh, no
I would just live with the regrets

I had nothin' left
But you came along and

All the love that I ever lost (Came back to me)
All the love that I ever lost (Came back to me)
I was frozen, I was hopeless
Now there's poetry in every moment
All the love that I ever lost (Came back to me)

Back to me, back to me
Back to me, back to me
Back-back to me, back to me
Back to me (Came back to me)

Feels like I'm floatin'
The colors so bright when I look in your eyes, oh yeah
I needed you to set me free
Now everything's golden
Since you arrived, I'm higher than high, oh yeah
Still can't believe that you found me

I had accepted love wasn't for me
I'd never go deep, oh, no
I'd given up watchin' sunsets
I disconnected, I didn't believe, no
I couldn't see, oh, no
I would just live with the regrets

I had nothin' left
But you came along and

All the love that I ever lost (Came back to me)
All the love that I ever lost (Came back to me)
I was frozen, I was hopeless
Now there's poetry in every moment
All the love that I ever lost (Came back to me)

Back to me, back to me
Back to me, back to me
Back-back to me, back to me
Back to me (Came back to me)

Feels like I'm floatin'
The colors so bright when I look in your eyes, oh yeah
I needed you to set me free
Now everything's golden
Since you arrived, I'm higher than high, oh yeah
Still can't believe that you found me
