

Katy Perry, Truth

I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)
I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)

I got a vision keepin' me up at night (Up at night)
My intuition's tellin' me things ain't right (Things ain't right)

Can't look in the mirror, what is it you're tryna hide?
Can't give me your password to your phone, not start a fight
You're treating me different, tell me what's goin' through your mind?
You're acting so distant, who you see when you close your eyes?

I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)
I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)
Show me the fire, show me the flames
Don't try to hide it, spare me the pain
I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)

I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)
I wanna know the truth
Even if it hurt-hurts me (Hurts me, hurts me)
