

Kavana, Holdin' Back On You

we fall in love and we fall apart i want to touch but i know i can't it seems to me that you choose to ignore i'm staying here you can have it all the silence kills me everytime it gets so tough i lose my mind you couldn't underestimate the feelings that you do create chorus:

you are the one i'm dreaming of i know what i must do i had my chance but i let it pass i'm holding back on you if i knew then all the things i know now i'd never be the lonely one who's losing out anxiety has become my new friend i'm losing control when's it going to end?

it gets so tough i lose my mind

repeat chorus

do you know i never can do it can't stop myself from falling in love repeat chorus to fade
