

Kavana, I Believe

Count the day until I see you.
Always on my mind,
Never been so captivated,
Never felt so high.
If I ever fall,
would you be my saving grace,
Everytime I call,
Whether near or far,
You'd come to me always I believe in love,(don't ya know that)
I believe in truth,(always)
I believe in trust, (since I met ya)
I believe in you, (believe in you)
Thinking bout the way it was,
I had so much to learn.
Looking for an explanation,
I left no stone unturned.
Then you come along,
You opened up your arms.
Opened up my mind,
To a new sensation,
Feels so right this time.
