

Kavana, Jealousy

take a look at what you're doing, it doesn't matter to me what a shame that you can't control your jealousy i know you better than you might think i know you better than anyone, anyone it's time to stop 'cos you're gonna sink you played your game but you played it wrong, played it wrong

i heard it from another you've been talking about me it doesn't take a fool to spot your insecurity i'm hearing all these stories you've been telling all this time i've had enough of your scheming lies chorus:

what a shame that you can't control your jealousy everybody's got a story that is waiting to be told what a shame you never control your jealousy i never guessed for a long long time i never realised you were no friend of mine what a shame that it's come to this you started something and now you're gonna finish it

and i can't take no more of it cos i'm gonna blow my cool and now you're gonna stop because you know you're gonna lose repeat chorus

to fade:

take a look, take a look now take a look, take a look at me take a look, take a look at your jealousy everybody is getting at me jealousy

repeat chorus
