

Kazuyuki Matsumoto, Out Of My Control

One day so sweet one day like ice
They want the danger in my eyes
I tell a lie or two
And they melt away
I never love I never care
That's how I lived until today
You walked into my room
I can't change my way
If you were a girl just
Like the other ones
I would tell you
I would show you
Who I am
Stay out of here
It's not your sphere
You can't return if
You don't go now
I'll tell you one more time,
Get out of my control
I like to hurt I like the dirt
It's my disease, I don't deny
I spend a night or two
And I will be gone
I say hello I say goodbye
And there is nothing in between
So don't believe in me
I don't wanna hurt you
Stay out of here
It's not your sphere
You won't regret it
Keep on running
Before I start the game of evil
If I were a man just
Like the other ones
Would you take me
Would you love me
Like you do?
