Keating, Hypnophobia

Do you pretend you're on your deathbed do you exhale and hold your breath does your heart stop and take you by surprise without a chance to say farewell no not me, no not me never until i fall asleep chorus keep me up, im afraid of what i might dream, give me a shove, if you see me drifting away have you avoided confrontation only to be a void yourself have you been lost within a slumber maze only to find you're lost within no not me, not not me never until ive nodded off
chorus keep me up, im afraid of what i might dream, give me a shove, if you see me drifting away i'm tired, so tired of being asleep i'm tired, so tired of closing my eyes i'm tired, so tired now just do what it takes i'm tired, so tired chorus out
