

Keaton Branch, Promises

Id never seen the inside of my heart until you ripped me open with your two face glances this time, this time there's something else something fleeting that i can't seem to hold onto i can't stand that i can't tell how well i keep you satisfied so go tell all your friends about me i'm being half the man i can be (and i can't take it with me) everything has to be this game with you soft, sweet and simple is impossible we never knew or would believe how much we'd change and second-guess the promises that brought us closer listen up, girl if for the last time forget "i love you," it's overdone slow it down and put your pillow on the bedroom floor cut the light it doesn't look like i'll be going home anytime soon we'll see if we can pick it up where we left off i can't take it when i can't take it with me
