

Kecak, Boeing 757

It looks like your time has come
You brought this all on yourself

Turn your eyes to the sky
Turn your eyes to the east
It's your turn to suffer

Please keep your chairs upright
Don't bother looking down
Now we are taking flight
Now we are climbing

It looks like your time has come
You brought this all on yourself

Turn your eyes to the sky
Turn your eyes to the east
It's your turn to suffer
