

Kehlani, tangerine

I get jealous, jealous of every sip
Pineapple water, I can taste it on your lips
Spendin' time paintin' the walls from the floor to the ceilin'
Lotus flower picked from the Garden of Eden
If I were you, I'd wanna savor it all

Raspberry tangerine, honey (I can taste me on you)
Vanilla bean, so sweet (Mm-mm, mm-mm)
And you can get it in the mornin', yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
When you want it, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Raspberry tangerine, honey

Used to be a butterfly, flyin' in the summertime (Oh)
But now you've made your case, found your home
Fruitful seeds, my, they've grown
Pollinate my love with yours
Fireplace in wintertime
Heat me up, I'll keep you warm
My sugar cane dangerous (Woah)
Nectar on my face again, oh (Woah, woah)
I like it 'cause it's

Raspberry tangerine, honey (I can taste me on you)
Vanilla bean, so sweet (Mm-mm, mm-mm)
And you can get it in the mornin', yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
When you want it, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Raspberry tangerine, honey

So don't tell nobody what's done in the garden
The fruits you can harvest, they grow where you water
It's all in the timin' when nobody's watchin', no
I can taste me on you (Mm-mm, mm-mm)
I can taste me on you (Mm-mm, mm-mm)
(Mm-mm, mm-mm)
(Mm-mm)
Everything, everything, everything
Everything (Everything), everything (Everything), everything (Everything)
Everything (Everything), everything (Everything), everything (Everything)
