

Keisha White, Make My World Come True

i can make my wish come true all my dreams will see me through doesnt matter what may come my way believe me now
i will win some day

and the flack won't get me down (oh no) my dreams will turn things all around with a smile upon my face i can see a better place doesnt matter what may come my way (oh no)
believe me now
i will win some day
