

Keith Anderson, I Still Miss You

(Verse 1)

I've changed the presets in my truck,
So those old songs don't sneak up,
But they still find me and remind me.
Yeah, you come back that easy.

Try restaurants I've never been to,
Order new things off the menu
That I never tried, cause you didn't like,
Two drinks in, you were by my side.

(Chorus)

I've talked to friends,
Talked to myself,
I've talked to God,
I prayed liked hell,
But I still miss you.

I've tried sober, I've tried drinking.
I've been strong, and I've been weak,
And I still miss you.

I've done everything,
Move on like I'm supposed to,
I'd give anything for one more minute with you.
I still miss you.
I still miss you, baby.

(Verse 2)

I never knew 'til you were gone
How many pages you were on.
It never ends,
I keep turning and
Line after line you're there again.

Well, I don't know how to let you go;
You're so deep down in my soul,
I feel helpless, so hopeless.
It's a door that never closes.
No, I don't know how to do this.

(Chorus)

I've talked to friends,
Talked to myself,
I've talked to God,
I prayed liked hell,
But I still miss you.

I've tried sober, I've tried drinking.
I've been strong, and I've been weak,
And I still miss you.

I've done everything
To move on like I'm supposed to,
But I'd give anything for one more minute with you.
I still miss you, yeah.

I've talked to friends,
Talked to myself,
Talked to God,

I prayed liked hell,
But I still miss you.

I've tried sober, I've tried drinking.
I've been strong, and I've been weak,
And I still miss you.

I've done everything
To move on like I'm supposed to,
But I'd give anything for one more minute with you.
I still miss you.

I still miss you.

I still miss you, yeah...
