

Keith Anderson, Lazy With Your Love

Common baby...

The alarm goes off and I smell the morning coffee
I hear your shower running, here goes another day
So I get up, pull back the shower curtain,
Climb on in baby, let it rain

Yeah, I got a million things to do and I know you do too
Call your boss, I'll call mine, got some lovin' that's overdue
Follow me, take my hand, the bed's still warm
Leave this busy world outside and get lazy with your love

Lazy with your love
Let's take all day, we're in no rush
You're amazing when we touch,
You drive me crazy
When I get lazy with your love

The sunlight through the window dances on your skin,
My fingers memorize your body and I fall in love again
You look deep inside of me and I realize
That everything I'll ever need is in your eyes

And I get lazy with your love
Let's take all day, we're in no rush
You're amazing when we touch
You drive me crazy when I get lazy with your love

And I get lazy with your love
Let's take all day we're in no rush
You're amazing when we touch
You drive me crazy
When I get crazy with your love

And I get lazy. Ooooooh yeah.
