

Keith Caputo, Mother

still getting down well get over it come and talk about it cause things are getting better man, what's going on come and talk to me lay your body down i want to know for sure

Mother cant you her them crying there's too many of them crying so whats going on in the world too still getting down just dont understand gotta find a way there'll come a time i go to a place where no Mother, Mother.. Father, Father of us who live this life i wanna live this life save a childs life we gotta save the world today gotta change a life one by one who really cares in the world today Father, Father you got to survive it Mother, Mother save the bal we gotta save the world today gotta try to live got to survive it who really cares in the world today Mother, Mother they're so stupid minded
