

Keith Martin, One Mile From Paradise

hmmmmmmm

oh yeah.... hmmmm yeah.... ooohhh she was only seventeen pretty young it seems for her dreams deceived she was eager in love for sure everybody knows how the story was told but it changed, she didn't know he need her so she walked away when she should have stayed

[Chorus]
she was only one mile from paradise she was only one mile away
she was only one mile from paradise
The love was fine but it did not last, he sliped away

The pain of losing was much too bad she should have shown how much she care i would have given my life for her love but i'm too far away from her foreign town with all my heart convinced her i tried but she walked away when she should have stayed

[Chorus]
she was only one mile away
she was only one mile from paradise
The love was fine but it did not last, he sliped away (hmmmm)
she was only one mile from paradise
she was only one mile away
she was only one mile from paradise
The love was fine but it did not last, he sliped away... away... away
she was only one mile from paradise
she was only one mile away
she was only one mile from paradise
The love was fine but it did not last, he sliped away away... away... yeah
she was only one mile from paradise
she was only one mile away
she was only one mile from paradise
The love was fine but it did not last, he sliped away away... away... away... (fading)
