

Keith Richards, Locked Away

She swears, that I&#039;m the only one
What about yesterday, yeah
Oh! I&#039;d like to believe
Somehow I still suspect

Locked away
She ought to be locked away
She ought to be locked away

My mind is racing
Footsteps lead me to jealousy
I&#039;m losing my grip
I can&#039;t trust the way I feel

Locked away
I ought to be locked away
I ought to be locked away

My friends say that you&#039;re friends say, Ooh
That I ain&#039;t worth your time
I know what you must hear
Don&#039;t let it interfere

Locked away
They ought to be locked away
They ought to be locked away
Locked away

We can&#039;t do anything
Any trick in the book
We can&#039;t go anywhere
All long as we care

We ought to be locked away
We ought to be locked away
Locked away...
